

"Solidarność" City Park

The „Solidarność” City Park, formerly called the Park of Queen Louisa, is a very important point on the map of the monuments of the city. The remains of the Hindenburg’s Infantry Regiment monument commemorate the soldiers from the 147 Infantry Regiment (named after field marshal Hindenburg) fallen between 1914 and 1918. While crossing the park you can also see the historic fountain and the monument of Michał Kajka.
