

The extreme route in the ropes course

The „extreme“ route is the most difficult of the routes in the rope course and is designed only for people over the age of fourteen, after an appropriate training.